

New Life Christian Academy & Preparatory students have the opportunity to advance their interests in and out of the classroom. Beyond our rigorous academic course work, students also participate in art, music, drama, community service, clubs, and athletics where they can express their creativity, leadership and form passions that will last a lifetime.