

As a member of the New Life community, you will experience the advantages of partnering with other families who share similar values, expectations, and dreams for their children as you have for your own. The strength of our school community is realized in the moms, dads, and grandparents who faithfully pray and continually give their time and energies to assist in fulfilling the school's mission. For parents seeking to be active members of the New Life family, opportunities abound.

Parent Support Fellowship Mission Statement:

As a member of the New Life community, you will experience the advantages of partnering with other families who share similar values, expectations, and dreams for their children as you have for your own. The strength of our school community is realized in the moms, dads, and grandparents who faithfully pray and continually give their time and energies to assist in fulfilling the school's mission. For parents seeking to be active members of the New Life family, opportunities abound.