

Weekly music classes are taught to all students beginning in kindergarten. Students may join band programs as well as begin individual lessons in piano, strings, and drums beginning in elementary.